THE NEGRO POPULATION.

The Census Shows a High Death Rate—Interesting Facts.

Dr. Billings, an eminent physician of Washington, who is to have charge of the mortality statistics of the next census, made the following statement recently:

"The next census will dispense many errors that have grown out of comparisons made between the census of 1880 and that of 1870. The most prominent misrepresentation that will be corrected will be the one that asserts the phenomenal growth of the negro population of the country when compared with the whites. The comparisons of the next census will be made with those of 1880, the only approximately correct census as to population or anything else made in the history of the Government. The observation of mortality tables made more complete during the last ten years than ever before, shows that the negro population has a far higher death rate than the whites. In Washington it is nearly double that of the whites, and yet this district has been fitted termed the paradise of the negro. Nowhere in the civilized or uncivilized world is he as well paid for his labor, as well clothed, as well housed, as well fed. There are more of the race in receipt of annual salaries, removed from the condition of day laborers, than in any city of the world at any period of the world's history. Even the poorest are cared for better than the average negro in any other city of the country, and yet the death rate of the negro, month after month and year after year, is nearly double that of the white man. It is so in every city of the country, and in nearly all Southern cities where statistics are kept the ratio of death is larger for the negro than in Washington. In Charleston, Mobile, Savannah, New Orleans, Galveston and Memphis the death rate of the negro sometimes rises to more than double the whites. The birth rate of the negro is difficult to obtain, because they rarely obtain a physician, but from such statistics as we have the birth rate does not greatly exceed in cities that of whites. In Washington there is an excess of negro births as compared with the whites, but it is not nearly double. From all that can be learned from health and mortality statistics kept in cities it is the best opinion that the negro population does not increase proportionately with the whites, and that the next census will show that in the whole country the importance of the negro as a factor in our population is on the increase."

VALUE OF IRRIGATION.

The Recommendation Made by Major Powell.

Bismarck (N.D.), August 10.—Major Powell, of the Senate Irrigation Committee, has advised the tank system of irrigation in Dakota—a pond on every farm, where practicable, that will catch the storm waters and store them until needed. He says that a 20-acre tank filled with water to a depth of 10 feet will irrigate 300 acres of land and increase the value of the land from 300 to 400 per cent.

"If we irrigate," he says, "we would never need any other fertilizer, and we might crop the land for 200 years without rotation. Water in this case is a fertilizer, and land can never be exhausted where irrigation is practiced."

The Salt Lake and Los Angeles.

Samuel F. Godde, who has just arrived in San Francisco from Pioche, reports that work on the continuation of the Utah Central railroad, the Salt Lake and Los Angeles branch, is being actively pushed forward. The preliminary surveys are completed, and the location stakes and grade stakes set over a portion of the road, and a force of graders are at work. It is intended to push the work as rapidly as possible, and the money is ready. The general route will be from Milford, in Utah, to Pioche, and from Pioche, following the valley southwest, to Barlow, on the California Southern. Whether it will connect with the California Southern or build an independent line to Los Angeles is not known.

Strong May Resign.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—It was rumored today that President Strong, of the Atchafalaya road, would resign his position. President Strong had an excellent opportunity to resign at the last annual meeting, but chose to remain with the Atchafalaya to see it through its financial troubles. It is unlikely that Strong will pull out and let some other man get the credit of putting the road on its feet again.

Henry C. Adams, statistical of the Interstate Commerce Commission, has submitted his first annual report on statistics of railroads in the United States for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1888. A summary is given of the number of miles of lines existing in the States and Territories on June 30, 1888, from official and unofficial sources. The totals are as follows: Official, 13,910,183; unofficial, 1,079,989; grand total, 14,990,172, which is one mile of road to every 20.14 square miles of country exclusive of Alaska.

Ellensburg, the central city of Washington and one of the most prominent applicants for capital honors, is much pleased with the action of the Constitutional Convention in adopting Ellensburg's plan for submitting the motion to the people at the October election. The question is now squarely before the people and those claiming to be familiar with the sentiment of the State say there is no doubt of the result, and that Ellensburg will be the choice.

Dr. Brown-Sequard's discovery of the elixir of life is generally regarded by the physicians of San Francisco as one of the eccentricities of an old man's brain.

THE GARDEN CITY.

Assessed Value of Property Within the City Limits of San Jose.

SAN JOSE, August 9th.—The assessed value of property within the city limits, as shown by the assessment roll just completed, is as follows: Land, $9,870,223; improvements on real estate assessed to others than the owners thereof, $21,600; mortgages, $1,004,971; franchises, $15; money, $203,938; personal property, $1,573,850. Total, $17,749,104; reduction of mortgages, $1,904,971; balance, $15,844,133. This statement does not include the assessment of the property of the railroads within the city which will be assessed by the State Board of Equalization. It is estimated that with the addition of the assessed value of the railroad property the total will be nearly $19,000,000, which, for the city of San Jose, is a substantial evidence of growth and prosperity. When this addition to the roll is made it will show that of the property in San Jose city less than ten per cent. of the assessed value is mortgaged. This is considered a most excellent showing.

A CONSUL SNUBBED.

King Kalakaua Declines to Receive Consul General Severance.

From private advices received by the steamship Australia, which has arrived from Honolulu, it is learned that when Hon. W. H. Severance arrived in that city by the Australia to assume office as United States Consul General, his Majesty, King Kalakaua, declined to give him an interview. He also refused to accept him as Consul General, and only yielded to his Ministers under protest, saying that the responsibility must rest with them. The reasons given by his Majesty for his action was that Mr. Severance was dismissed from office as Hawaiian Consul in San Francisco for cause. His Majesty, it is said, feels that Mr. Severance's appointment marks a lack of courtesy on the part of the United States officials.

THE GRAND ARMY.

General Alger Likely to Be Chosen Commander.

WASHINGTON, August 9.—A great deal of interest is being taken here in Grand Army circles over the forthcoming election to be held at the annual encampment of the Grand Army at Milwaukee. It was supposed for some time that Commissioner Tanner would be a candidate for the post of Commander-in-Chief, but it is announced on authority now that the Commissioner has decided not to permit his name to be used, owing to his official position. While there are understood to be several candidates in the field for the honor, it is current here that, with Tanner out of the way, ex-Governor Russell Alger, of Michigan, has the lead, and it is thought his prospects for election are better than those of any other man.

Garland in Luck.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Ex-Archbishop General Garland has been appointed resident attorney of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company at a salary, it is said, of $25,000.

THE UNION PACIFIC.

It Is Building a New Line Through Southern Nevada.

The San Francisco Call reports the following interview: Judge Baker, of Nevada, was chatting with a well-known mining man of this city last evening in the office of the Palace Hotel, when a Call reporter accosted him. He is the attorney for the Central Pacific Railroad Company, and is in the city on legal business of the company. It is not of particular importance, however, for "the only news worth telling," as the Judge put it, is the operations of the Union Pacific Railroad Company in Southern Nevada.

"The Union Pacific," he said, "has made all its surveys very quietly from Utah to California, and is now beginning to build the line."

"Are they pushing the work of construction quickly, or showing a determination to get through at an early date?" was asked. "Well, about that I cannot say," was the reply, "as it is a little out of my section; but I have heard that they intend to complete the road within a year. They are building down toward Pioche at present, but how quickly I can't tell. The people down there are full of expectations, and they are so, for it is bound to improve the State considerably."

"There is a good deal of talk about the extension of local roads down to the Union Pacific line. The Eureka and Palmdale and the Austin and Battle Mountain lines will be run down to meet it, and the Carson and Colorado road will cross the new line, so we will have two parallel roads with three intersecting lines topping each in Nevada. I've been told the Union line will meet the Atlantic at Mojave and run on the latter into Los Angeles."

TEHAMA COUNTY.

10,378 27-100 Acres.

Township 25 N, Range 7 W, Mt.

Diablo Meridian.

This township lies on the eastern slope of the Coast Range of mountains, and from 13 to 20 miles west from Med Hill, the county seat of Tehama County. The boundaries of the U. S. Surveyor who laid out this township, says: "This township is well adapted for grazing, as it affords pasture for large herds of cattle. It is well watered by the various tributaries of Alder Creek. It is also very valuable for its timber, which consists of a heavy growth of yellow and sugar pine, spruce and cedar. There is a heavy undergrowth of chaparral, chemical and manzanita." The even sections are in most instances government land, so that the parts most valuable as an adjunct to this range might easily be secured at government price, namely: $2.50 per acre for single quarter sections.

In Section 9, coal was discovered recently by some herders, but nothing has been done to develop the mine, although samples which have been tested show the coal to be of excellent quality.

We are assured that a Railroad heading for the Coast, and running through the Coast Range timber belt will be built very near this ranch. Price for the whole, consisting of 10,378 27-100 acres will be $25,000.

TAHOE AND VICINITY.

Graphic Description of the Varied
Scenery of Mountain Scenery—Sparkling
Trent Streams and Placid Lakes.

One of the pioneer ladies of San Francisco sends to the San Francisco Alta for publication the subjoined account of her Summer "outing" in the wilds of the higher Sierras:

"If you really care to know something of the delightful trip we have been taking, I will endeavor to give an idea of it, feeling sure that you will be inclined to spend your vacation in following our trail. Now is the time of all the year to get away from the winds and fogs of San Francisco, which cannot be accomplished by going to Santa Cruz or Monterey, where one finds no change of air or climate. It is inapplicable to me why people permeated with salt air the year round seek change at the sea shore. What we require is the restful yet invigorating atmosphere of the mountains, made sweet and balmy by the fragrance of the glorious pine and fir trees, to attain which we sought the Sierras, taking the train to Summit on the Central Pacific Railroad, there attaining an altitude of over six thousand feet; the trip accomplished in less than twelve hours, but such a delicious change of climate after the wind and chilling fog which had nearly exhausted our nervous system the week previous here in this our dear old dusty San Francisco. At Summit we took breakfast and then the stage for Soda Springs, which are some thirteen miles away from the railroad, the drive to which surpasses in beauty any other that we have seen. The valley where rise these delicious springs lies about 1,000 feet below Summit, and through it runs the north fork of the American river with its numerous cascades adding greatly to the beauty and picturesque of the surroundings, while the murmuring of the waters blending with the whispering of the pines together with the delicious atmosphere produce the most perfect picture one could desire.

"The streams are teeming with trout, and a more delightful spot for rest and recreation can nowhere be found. The table is well served and amply provided with the best the market affords, the products of a neighboring dairy being particularly delicious. Good, sure-footed horses, with necessary equipments for mountain climbing, are always on hand for exploring the many mystic and attractive trails leading from the valley. A week passed all too rapidly at this fascinating retreat, and it was with sincere regret that we tore ourselves away, but our drive back to Summit added another attractive feature, as, in order to catch the early morning train from San Francisco, due at Summit at 6 A. M., we left the Springs at 3 o'clock in the morning, the moon, in all its glory, brightening our way until the sun made his appearance, softening the chill of the early morning air. We caught our train, had a comfortable breakfast on board and reached Truckee in time to meet the stage for Tahoe, anticipating something grand in the drive to the lake, but found it in no feature equal to that to Summit Soda Springs.

"The next point of interest we reached by steamboat from Tahoe City. It proved to be Emerald Bay, by far the prettiest, most romantic, and without exception the most attractive place upon Lake Tahoe. This beautiful little bay, two and a half miles in length by one in breadth, and the entrance to which is not over a quarter of a mile in width, affords the safest and prettiest little harbor imaginable for rowing and sailing. The hotel and cottages nestle most cozily among the towering pines, firs and tamaracks; the surrounding woods are amply supplied with comfortable seats and charming nooks cleared here and there for resting places; the beach is sandy and bathing excellent; numerous neat and tidy boats are always ready and in good condition for rowing and sailing, supplied with all necessary fishing tackle, bait, etc., boats and all free of charge to guests of the place. The cottages and furniture are new, beds most comfortable, fresh and clean, table well supplied, and salmon trout in abundance can be caught at any time in the bay. There on the beach at evening a huge camp fire was the rallying point for all who chose to listen or contribute to song or story, while "Sailor Jack," the waiter and student of "Theosophy," varied the programme by sentimental strains upon his violin.

"Emerald Bay is by far the most beautiful spot on Lake Tahoe, and you must not fail to visit it. A few more days at Tallies, Glen Alpine and Glenbrook, and we found ourselves once more at Truckee, whence we drove, on a beautiful morning, to view the spot made memorable by the Donner tragedy, where a party of emigrants crossing the continent became snowbound, and in their destination were brought to such a state of starvation as to appraise their hunger by feeding upon the flesh of one of their more fortunate companions, whom death had mercifully released from the terrible surroundings. These unfortunate and suffering people were rescued and brought safely to the coast by a party of brave and noble men, led by a heroic young naval officer who had himself just accomplished the trip across the continent in the saddle, coming as a bearer of dispatches; and, hearing of these lost and starving people, offered his services to lead a party to their rescue, knowing well what suffering and privations men and women so situated must be enduring. But history has recorded all this sad story, and yet many persons now living directly around the spot now marked by a large white cross seem to know little or nothing of the terrible horrors there encountered. The locality is not far from Truckee, en route to the beautiful little lake named after the unfortunate Donner family.

"How little do we contemplate, realize or appreciate the courage and heroism of so many of our early pioneers, both men and women, who risked life and health to gain a home in this land of flowers. In those days such a trip meant toil and sacrifice, when the comforts, and even necessities of life, were so few and so unobtainable. Little do we, who came here supplied with every luxury, know what hardships these courageous and patient people endured in their long and weary journeys across the plains. It is to such nerve and sinew and their descendants that this Coast owes much of its increasing and lasting prosperity. But I have wandered from our journey, which terminated at Donner Lake, where we spent a night and returned to San Francisco.

Nevada State Fair.

The San Francisco Reader and Sportsman says: "The Directors of the Nevada State Fair are laboring under difficulties this year, inasmuch that the last Legislature refused to allow them any bonus with which to carry on the Annual Meeting. Nothing daunted, however, by this turn of affairs, the members, individually and collectively, have determined to show the law-makers what push and perseverance can do. Theodore Winters, Esq., who has been East all Summer with his stable of horses, left them in charge of his able assistant, Alf Estell, and has returned to his duty as President of the Association, determined to make the Fair of 1889 one of the most successful ever held. One of the features will be a great combination sale held on the first day of the meeting, for which entries are invited from everywhere. This presents a favorable opportunity to buy and sell, and will without doubt be carried to a gratifying conclusion alike to those who will purchase or those who offer their stock for sale. The purses offered for competition are large and well worthy of liberal patronage from this State, and as there are quite a number of rich running purses, it will be surprising if the thoroughbred division is not largely represented at Reno. The entries for this meeting will close August 15th, and we hope to hear that the generosity of the Directors has been liberally rewarded in the way of nominations."

Improvements.

The Verdi Mill Co. is putting in blowers to take care of the sawdust, and the work will be done this week. The pipes are attached to each machine and the sawdust and shavings blown out to the kilns two hundred feet from the mill and factory, and burned. The system of piping is an extensive one, and although expensive will be a saving in the end. As yet no effort has been made by the mill on the river around Truckee to comply with the law which goes into effect on September 1st. The Verdi Mill Co. has the greatest mill and box factory on the Truckee river and is sparing no money to make it complete in every respect. The next feature will be the putting of its electric light plant, which will be commenced in a few days.

As It Should Be.

The State Board of Education will issue Educational Diplomas valid for six years to Mr. C. D. Van Duzer, Miss Mary L. Sherman, Miss Lillian M. Werner and Miss Maud Daugherty, who were graduated from the Normal Department of the State University last June. To the graduates of other State Normal schools State Certificates valid for three years will be granted. The action of the Board, which is in accordance with the laws of Nevada, will meet with general approval. The preference ought to be given, if there were no law to regulate the matter, to the graduates of our own Normal School.

College Students.

In the announcement of the Missouri University for 1888-89, the Missouri University informs the public that a fine, large brick club house has been erected with the $20,000 legislative appropriation, which will accommodate 100 students, and in which board should not cost over $2 per week. The youth of Missouri are also reminded that there is now no occasion for them to leave their State for an education. Nevada will be able to say the same to her citizens after the 1st of March, 1890, when the new University Hall will be completed.

The Driest Season Known.

D. C. Simpson, of Smith's Valley, was in Dayton last week, and in speaking of the scarcity of water told a Times reporter that this had been the driest season ever known in Nevada. Some days ago he made a trip to the headwaters of the Walker river, and in places where for years there had been large banks of snow there was bare ground and dead trees. At one point where it was thought the snow on the mountains was perpetual, and where a bank 100 feet high had stood before, there was nothing but a forest of dead trees.

The New Depot.

Supt. Whitford saw the plans for the new Reno depot when he was in San Francisco last week and says the new building will be the finest of its size on the road, and as pretty as any he ever saw. The plans will be ready and work commenced next week.

"THEN WE WILL DIE TOGETHER."

A Tragedy of Monte Carlo.

A young married man of Lyons fell in love with a young married woman. They met secretly, adored each other, and agreed to fly together—to put the seas between themselves and their families. But there was a slight difficulty in the way. They had little money for a long journey, but they wanted to be far, far away—in America for choice. Then the idea came to the man that they would take their small capital of a few hundred francs and go to Monte Carlo and make it into a fortune—a fortune which would enable them to live in peace and plenty on a far-off shore. So it came that one day, with a small box and a portmanteau, the fugitives arrived at Monte Carlo and put up at a little hotel where for eight francs a day you can have a bed and board. They had only a few hundred francs with them. In the letter which they left behind they explained that from the first their arrangements had been complete. They foresaw the possibilities of a situation that they would play until they had won enough to go to America, or they would lose all. And if they lost all they would die together and give their friends no further trouble about them.

They were a few days only in Monte Carlo. They risked their little capital a few times, and they spent the remainder of the day and evenings in strolling about the beautiful gardens and quiet paths of the beautiful gardens whispering together of love and looking into each other's eyes. The end came quickly. One evening they went up in the soft moonlight to the fairland of Monte Carlo. They entered the Casino. They had come to their last few golden coins. One by one the crowd of gamblers swept them away, and then the lovers went out of the hotel, crowded rooms, out from the glare of the chandeliers and the swinging lamps, into the tender moonlight again. Down "the Staircase of Fortune" arm in arm they went along the glorious marble terraces that look upon the sea, on to where at the foot of the great rock on which Monaco stands. There lies the condemned. It was their last walk together. The lovers were going home to die.

That night in the guilty man and ruined man and woman obtained some charcoal and got it into their bedroom. They then closed the windows and doors and prepared for death. They wrote a letter—a letter that they had read in the room where they lay dead the years ran down his cheeks. Then the girl—she was but a girl—dressed herself in "no" white and placed in her breast a sweet bouquet of violets. Then the charcoal was lighted and the lovers laid themselves out for death, side by side, and passed dreamily into sleep, from sleep to death and from death to judgment.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the bowels, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Feb. 21-5wt-ly.

Going to Leave.

C. M. Fassett will close up his business here this month and leave for Spokane Falls on the 1st of September.

Bond Forwarded.

Nasby received notice of his appointment yesterday, and immediately forwarded his bond on to Washington.

Many of the employees in the San Francisco Postoffice say they will resign rather than accept the reduced salaries offered. They claim they are the poorest paid men of any large Postoffice in the United States. The reduction went into effect last Saturday.

WHAT ON EARTH.

Is the reason people will not, can not or do not use any difference in cheap nostrums put up by cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at home or abroad, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at a price? No medicine in the world is giving such universal satisfaction for purifying the blood as BFG'S BLOOD PURIFIER AND BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do the work will cost you nothing.

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are some of the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet surely and efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local symptoms removes the systemic effects of the disease, banishes the headache, and refreshes the tired mind.

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me no good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with my paint. Last Spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla—It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced." GEORGE A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

The proprietor is now ready to receive proposals for lots in Powning's Addition. The map gives a good idea of the tract, which is situated between the Central Pacific Railroad and the Truckee River, and commences on the west at a point three blocks distant from Virginia Street, making it the most central and convenient of any portion of the rapidly growing town of Reno. Unlike any other part of the town this Addition faces the beautiful Truckee River and Riverside Avenue is certain to become the fashionable driveway of the country. The streets are 80 feet wide, while Riverside and Keystone Avenues are intended to be 100 feet in width. All alleys are 20 feet wide. The soil is a rich gravelly loam, and susceptible of the highest state of cultivation. Being situated as it is it is more safe from fire than any other section. The regular lots are 50x140 feet. The sewerage is perfect.

Before Buying Elsewhere Parties will do Well to Look at These Lots.

RENO

Reno's geographical position is excellent. It is on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, only 154 miles from Sacramento, and 244 miles from San Francisco. It is the terminus of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad running south, and of the Nevada and California Railroad running north. It has two Flouring Mills, Planing Mills, three Nurseries, a Soap Factory, Reduction Works, and other industries. A great Woolen Mill and a Sash, Door, Blind and Box Factory, are about to be established.

Reno has the Bank of Nevada with $300,000 capital, and the First National Bank with $200,000 capital. It has two fine papers in the DAILY and WEEKLY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL and the Daily and Weekly Gazette.

Reno is the natural home of the Alfalfa, and therefore the great cattle headquarters of the State. Here are fed the prime beef for the California market. Reno potatoes are the best in the world, and she also excels in Strawberries and the small fruits. Reno Wheat took the first prize at the great New Orleans Exposition.

New buildings are occupied as fast as erected. Reno has advantages which no other town can equal. The climate is mild and genial in Winter, and even and healthful in Summer. There are no excessively heated or severely cold terms, and while the days may be warm in Summer the nights are deliciously cool; in Winter sleigh-riding is the exception and not the rule.

Facilities for irrigating surpass any in the State and there is no failure of crops. Reno has Churches of all denominations, Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls, Mt. St. Mary's Academy, the State University, and splendid Public Schools.
